

Business Status	Sole proprietor WITHOUT employees	Sole proprietor WITH employees
New or Start-up business (Business Registrations)	☐ DTI Business name registration ☐ Barangay clearance ☐ Mayor's permits/Business permits ☐ BIR Registration	☐ DTI Business name registration ☐ Barangay clearance ☐ Mayor's permits/Business permits ☐ BIR Registration ☐ SSS Employer Registration ☐ SSS Employee Registration ☐ PhilHealth Employer Registration ☐ PhilHealth Employee Registration ☐ Pag-IBIG Employer Registration
Existing or operating business (Renewal of Permits)	☐ DTI Business name renewal (After 5 years of validity) ☐ Barangay clearance renewal ☐ Mayor's permits/Business permits renewal (valid for 1 year. Renew within the first month of the year or on the anniversary date of the issuance of the business permit.) Note: No renewal for BIR permit due to the EOPTA Act.	☐ DTI Business name renewal (After 5 years of validity) ☐ Barangay clearance renewal ☐ Mayor's permits/Business permits renewal (January 20 of each year) Note: No renewal for SSS, PhilHealth, and Pag-IBIG. One-time registration.
Existing or operating business (Post-registration compliance and obligations)	☐ BIR Form ☐ 1701 ☐ 1701-Q, ☐ 1701-A ☐ 1701-MS	☐ BIR Form ☐ 1701 ☐ 1701-Q, ☐ 1701-A ☐ 1701-MS ☐ SSS Contribution and remittance ☐ PhilHealth Contribution and remittance ☐ Pag-IBIG Contribution and remittance

Note: Sole proprietors with employees must comply with employer/employee registration requirements

Additional on the list:

	Contributions	Penalties
BIR	☐ File required tax returns on time ☐ Pay taxes due on time ☐ Remit withholding taxes when applicable	For micro and small taxpayers covered by the applicable rules: generally 10% surcharge for late filing/payment, plus applicable interest and compromise penalties. Fraudulent/false returns may carry higher penalties.
SSS	☐ Monthly SSS contributions — employer and employee shares ☐ Employees' Compensation (EC) contribution — employer share	2% per month on unpaid contributions until fully paid.
PhilHealth	☐ Monthly PhilHealth premium contributions — employer and employee shares ☐ Submit required remittance/reporting	Missed employer contributions may be subject to interest of at least 3%, compounded monthly, subject to applicable PhilHealth rules/programs.
PagIBIG	☐ Monthly Pag-IBIG/Mandatory Savings contributions — employer and employee shares ☐ Submit Membership Savings Remittance Form (MSRF)	0.1% per day of the amount due for each day of delay (equivalent to 1/10 of 1%).

BMBE

What	Barangay Micro Business Enterprises (BMBE) Act of 2002 aims to promote the establishment of micro businesses in the Philippines.
Who	Any person, natural or juridical, such as a partnership, corporation, association, and cooperative.
Qualifications	A person applying to be registered as a BMBE shall meet the following qualifications: a) With an asset of not more than Three Million Pesos (P3,000,000.00) excluding land;

	b) Engaged in the production, processing or manufacturing of products or commodities, including agroprocessing, trading and services; c) Registered with the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) for sole proprietorships, for juridical persons; with Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for corporation.
Requirement	☐ BMBE Form 01 (3 copies)
Exempt	1. All BMBEs except on Regular Income Tax 2. BMBEs shall be exempt from the coverage of the Minimum Wage Law (MWL).
Guide and steps for BMBE registration	Filing 1. Go to the website bmb.e.dti.gov.ph 2. Fill out the eligibility checker to determine whether you meet the criteria requirements 3. Provide and submit the business email for registrations 4. Check and input the verification code sent by email 5. Fill out the BMBE registration form 6. Review the information provided 7. Submit and download the certificate
Validity/Renewal	Valid for 2 years after registration and may be renewed for the same period of (2) years or every two (2) years thereafter.
Link to Video Tutorial	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4hg4Ghe_8fk